

Afinety is a leading provider of “standardized” computer networks to small businesses. Industry leading HP hardware and Microsoft software solutions are fully enabled through our proprietary automation processes to provide Fortune 500 quality solutions to small businesses. Afinety also provides a full scope of services to support all IT needs for small business.

Afinety has exciting employment opportunities for a Systems Engineer in Orange County. Afinety Systems Engineers will support, monitor, and troubleshoot hardware and software remotely and on-site on Windows-based LAN's/WAN's .

Position Responsibilities include:

- Provide server and workstation support at multiple locations.
- Install and configure workstations, servers, network printers, hubs, firewalls, and routers.
- Troubleshoot and resolve systemic, network issues.
- Maintain network infrastructure, apply patches, security fixes, and hot-fixes for optimum use.
- Develop positive relationships with customers.
- Prepare and submit accurate timesheets for billing purposes.

Requirements:

- Associate's Degree in Computer Science or related field.
- 2-5 years networking and LAN management experience.
- Microsoft certification: MCSE or MCSA.
- Expertise in at least two of the following: Windows server, Exchange, MSSQL, and/or SMS.
- Expertise with TCP/IP, DNS, DHCP, routing and networking.
- Experience managing desktops in a network environment.
- Experience with remote access, such as Terminal Services and Citrix.
- Strong time management and organization skills.

Only respond to this listing if you meet the above requirements.

All candidates will be required to pass a proficiency exam.

Please respond to technologyjobs@afinety.com with your resume and salary history.